WEEKLY MEDITATION

Let's explore some of the themes that we discover in the Mass readings for the 33rd Sunday of the Year.

1st Reading – Malachi 3:19-20a

- The day is coming when all the proud and evildoers will be stubble that is set on fire.
- For those who fear the Lord, there will arise a sun of justice with its healing rays.

Psalm – 98:5-9

- "The Lord comes to rule the earth with justice."
- The world and all living things will rejoice in the presence of the Lord.

2nd Reading – 2nd Thessalonians 3:7-12

- Paul recalls the example he set for the people, reminding them that if anyone was unwilling to work, neither should that one eat.
- The people are exhorted to work quietly and eat their own food.

Gospel – Luke 21:5-19

- While people are talking about the votive offerings and costly stones of the temple, Jesus tells them that the days will come when not a stone will be left upon another.
- The Lord tells them that wars and insurrections will happen, but do not be terrified; his followers will be persecuted, but they will be given wisdom to speak before their adversaries.

Fr. Andrew

Question for Children: Jesus teaches us that work is good for us. What kind of work do you do during the week? How does it help you?

Question for Youth: Jesus tells us that even though bad things will happen, we are safe in God. When have you felt the safety of God's life in your own life?

Question for Adults: Paul's words to the Thessalonians are tough: if you want to eat, you must work! How does this translate into our society today? How do you reconcile this with Jesus' command to love and feed the poor?

Faith in Action Serving Others: Benefits Coordinator

Opening ~ The Diocese of Superior is seeking a full-time Coordinator of Employee Benefits and Insurance to join our team at the Chancery in Superior. This is a unique opportunity for a practicing Catholic with expertise in benefits administration to directly support the mission of the Church. The role involves overseeing the administration of crucial employee benefits (health, dental, life, disability), managing open enrollment, ensuring ACA compliance, and assisting with various insurance plans (property, liability, workers' compensation). We seek candidates with a 2- or 4-year degree in Business, Finance, or HR (or equivalent experience), proficiency in QuickBooks and MS Office, and a strong foundation in benefits administration. If you are looking for a professional career aligned with your faith and values, please submit a letter of interest, resume, and references to Cindy Gronski at cgronski@catholicdos.org.

ORGAN RECITAL

First United Methodist Church (aka "The Coppertop Church") is hosting an organ recital on Sunday, November 16th at 3:00pm with organists Velda Graham Bell, Karen Hanson Sande and Rachael Kresha. The concert, "Music She Wrote," shines a spotlight on the incredible talents of women composers for the pipe organ. Organ repertoire dating from the 17th century up until recent times will be featured. This recital continues to celebrate the recent renovation and expansion of the church's Austin pipe organ. Admission is free, with a freewill offering to be taken.

Cenacle Prayer Group

Would you like to be part of a faith sharing small group? Are you looking for a weekly opportunity to pray and reflect on how God is working in your life, but in a way that respects your time and is both focused and positive? Our cluster is looking for people who want to grow together in faith through a Cenacle prayer group.

Cenacle – a faith sharing small group (it refers to the “Upper Room” where the disciples met.)

Cenacle Key Points

The group is ideally composed of 4-7 people.

Each week, a different person in the group leads the Cenacle.

The group meets weekly (with rare exceptions based on holidays and life situations).

The Cenacle lasts between 30-60 minutes; it never goes beyond an hour.

The group can meet in person or digitally

- If in person, do it at a regular time that suits everyone (after Mass, over coffee, at home, etc.)
- If online, use what works for your group (FaceTime, Google Meet, a Zoom call, etc.)

Cenacle Format – THIS IS WHAT YOU ACTUALLY DO

- Opening Prayer (1-2 minutes)
 - Led by whoever is leading the meeting that week; when in doubt, use the Our Father!
- Check in with each other (10-15 minutes)
 - Each person takes 2-4 minutes (never more than 5!) to share events from the past week
- Reflection (15-30 minutes)
 - Sunday Gospel Reading
 - The Gospel is read out loud
 - People share something (a word/phrase/image) that touched them from the reading
- Goals for the coming week (10-15 minutes)
 - Each person takes 2-3 minutes to share their goals and objectives for the coming week.
- Closing Prayer
 - Each person names any specific prayer intentions that they have.
 - The Leader offers a concluding prayer; if you're not sure what prayer to use, say the Hail Mary!

Hallmarks of a healthy Cenacle

- Positivity – the focus is always on personal growth when sharing struggles; “venting” is to be avoided.
- Vulnerability – requires participants to be real in their joys and burdens.
- Leadership – group is accountable: gossip, toxic behaviors, being present, not monopolizing time, etc.
- Investment – participants make the Cenacle a priority and are thoughtfully present and prepared.

Who can join?

- Anyone! What's required is someone who wants to make a weekly commitment to grow in faith.
- In fact, if you connect each week on a Zoom call, you can be anywhere in the world!
 - Note: the big thing is that people make this a priority in their lives.
 - Once a week, they come together to pray, reflect, and support each other.
 - It's not complicated, but over time we find ourselves growing closer to God and each other.

Choose a Group Leader and connect with Fr. Andrew to begin

- The Leader keeps the group organized and communicates with Fr. Andrew.
- This person emails Fr. Andrew at fatherandrew97@gmail.com to let him know the group has formed.
