WEEKLY MEDITATION

Let's take a look at some of the themes that we find in the readings for the 2nd Sunday of Advent.

1st Reading - Isaiah 11:1-10

- The spirit of the Lord shall rest upon an ancestor of the line of Jesse, and he shall judge with justice, wisdom, and strength.
- Creation will experience profound peace, and the Gentiles shall seek out the dwelling of God.

Psalm - 72: 1-2,7-8,12-13,17

- "Justice shall flourish in his time, and fullness of peace for ever."
- The king shall rescue the poor and judge with justice.

2nd Reading - Romans 15:4-9

- Through Christ, God gives us hope, endurance, and encouragement.
- We welcome one another, as Christ welcomes us.

Gospel - Matthew 3:1-12

- John the Baptist proclaims, "Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is at hand!"
- John speaks of one who is coming after him, who will baptize with the Holy Spirit and fire.

Fr. Andrew

Question for Children: Beyond toys and other things, what do you hope will happen in your family this Christmas?

Question for Youth: What are the greatest challenges you face as a young person today in terms of allowing Christ to be your teacher and following him?

Question for Adults: Name the one thing in your life which you must "move out of the way" in order to make more room for Christ – a grudge, a possession, a memory, hurt, or feeling.

Spiritual Waiting

- Bring out the Christmas decorations gradually, and keep an Advent space throughout the season. Pause there for prayer daily.
- Read and reflect on the Sunday readings or use an Advent daily devotional. Think of how the people of Israel waited for generations for the coming of the Messiah. How do you long for God's presence and grace in your life?
- When the bustle of preparations for Christmas become too much, recall the blessing of the people who will receive the gifts you will give or eat the meals you are preparing. How are your activities a response to the gift of these relationships in your life?

Wait for it

Wait for it... we use the phrase lightheartedly at times and seriously in others. There are some things that are simply worth waiting for.

"I can't wait!" Waiting isn't easy, especially in our on-demand, quick-fix world. We're expected to have immediate answers at work, and can choose from hundreds of entertainment options for instant enjoyment on TV or the web. Waiting requires patience, and often leaves us feeling a little uncomfortable. When we wait, we focus on what we are anticipating, — a new opportunity, resolution to a dilemma, a child, longed-for time with family or friends.

What are you waiting for? During Advent, we wait "in blessed hope" for Christ's second coming, and for the arrival of Christmas in which we celebrate Christ's "advent" — Jesus' coming as a child in Bethlehem. The season of Advent intensifies our anticipation of Christmas and our appreciation for the mystery of God's love for us.

The waiting we do during Advent is good for us, practically and spiritually. Our Advent waiting helps us to stay focused on the "reason for the season," as we take to heart the truth that God is with us, throughout the days and years of our lives. As we wait in this season, we become more sensitive to those who wait for food, clothing, employment, friendship, compassion. Advent is a time for us to reach out to them, to make Christ's love known through our actions and sharing.

Especially when so much of our surrounding culture is already marking the "Christmas season," it is not easy to wait patiently for all that Christmas brings — the special gatherings, meals, and gift-giving. Yet, wait we must. Keeping Advent transforms our practical waiting into something much more. Our hearts will be ready to more fully take in all that we celebrate at Christmas.

Advent reminds us that some things are simply worth waiting for.

Prepare the way

“Recalculating!” “A new route has been found that will save you time. Would you like to take it?”

In the era of online maps and GPS, we are rarely without directions for a trip, whether to an unfamiliar neighborhood in our own city or to a distant location. Not only do we have a sense of how long it will take to arrive at our destination, we are notified when we have missed a turn or when a slight change in course may save us time. If it were only so simple in our spiritual lives! What a difference it might mean for us if we could plug in our desired destination (a deeper relationship with God) and receive immediate directions for the journey. In many ways, we do have such instructions, especially in this season of Advent:

PRAYER IS OUR ON-RAMP

Often, the busier we get, the less time we are inclined to spend in prayer. Yet, our busiest times are exactly when we need to pray the most! Centering our lives with prayer insures that we are on the path God desires.

TAKE THE ROUTE OF GRATITUDE

In this season in which so much attention is focused on the gifts we will give others, take time to reflect on the many gifts God has given you. Growing in gratitude for your life, relationships with family and friends, your talents and strengths and financial resources will help you to recognize God's grace within and around you, even in the busiest of moments.

CARING AND SHARING IS THE WAY

Our parishes and local communities have many opportunities to reach out to those in need in this season. Plan to share your time and talent in service and your financial and material resources, not only now but in the year to come. Jesus' way is the way of sharing and caring.

This Advent, choose the best “yes”

by Amberly Boerschinger

When faced with various choices throughout the Advent season, consider the BEST yes.

*If you are tempted to celebrate with a handful of chocolate candies, consider saving the sweet treat for grandma's coffee cake or mom's sweet rolls. This is an easy way to help us wait and also to make the celebration of faith and family that much more special. *Many Hispanic Catholics celebrate the tradition of Las Posadas, processions and re-enactments of Mary and Joseph's census pilgrimage and their search and "wait" for a place to stay in Bethlehem. Perhaps instead of a progressive dinner or party often hosted before Christmas in many neighborhoods, invite an Hispanic friend or parishioner to share something in this tradition with you.

*Some cultures save opening of gifts for the Feast of Epiphany to commemorate the gifts of the three kings. This waiting allows us to focus on the spiritual gift of Jesus on Christmas Day. If you can't save all the gifts, maybe consider saving one special gift!

*If the Advent wreath, countdown calendar, Jesse

Tree or paper chain just isn't inspiring you, consider these four words as you move through December - Wait. Watch. Wonder. Welcome. There is no rush or goal in any of these words. Let yourself find purpose in their meaning, and peace in their simplicity.

*Remember, our destination is not Christmas Day, but to a welcoming of the Christ child, the Body of Christ, and a spirit of constant hospitality and generosity.

Prepare your heart for Jesus this Advent with daily prayer on Hallow

"My morning meditation and prayer time have increased substantially since I heard about and joined Hallow during Advent. My faith has deepened in ways that words just cannot describe. I am blessed and so grateful!"

"This Advent challenge pierced my heart. My heart wasn't open enough to Christ before, but now it's like a spark of light came into it."

"I am so much more aware of God's presence in my everyday life because of Hallow's Advent Challenge."

Join us in prayer this Advent!

Cenacle Prayer Group

Would you like to be part of a faith sharing small group? Are you looking for a weekly opportunity to pray and reflect on how God is working in your life, but in a way that respects your time and is both focused and positive? Our cluster is looking for people who want to grow together in faith through a Cenacle prayer group.

Cenacle – a faith sharing small group (it refers to the “Upper Room” where the disciples met.)

Cenacle Key Points

The group is ideally composed of 4-7 people.

Each week, a different person in the group leads the Cenacle.

The group meets weekly (with rare exceptions based on holidays and life situations).

The Cenacle lasts between 30-60 minutes; it never goes beyond an hour.

The group can meet in person or digitally

- If in person, do it at a regular time that suits everyone (after Mass, over coffee, at home, etc.)
- If online, use what works for your group (FaceTime, Google Meet, a Zoom call, etc.)

Cenacle Format – THIS IS WHAT YOU ACTUALLY DO

- Opening Prayer (1-2 minutes)
 - Led by whoever is leading the meeting that week; when in doubt, use the Our Father!
- Check in with each other (10-15 minutes)
 - Each person takes 2-4 minutes (never more than 5!) to share events from the past week
- Reflection (15-30 minutes)
 - Sunday Gospel Reading
 - The Gospel is read out loud
 - People share something (a word/phrase/image) that touched them from the reading
- Goals for the coming week (10-15 minutes)
 - Each person takes 2-3 minutes to share their goals and objectives for the coming week.
- Closing Prayer
 - Each person names any specific prayer intentions that they have.
 - The Leader offers a concluding prayer; if you're not sure what prayer to use, say the Hail Mary!

Hallmarks of a healthy Cenacle

- Positivity – the focus is always on personal growth when sharing struggles; “venting” is to be avoided.
- Vulnerability – requires participants to be real in their joys and burdens.
- Leadership – group is accountable: gossip, toxic behaviors, being present, not monopolizing time, etc.
- Investment – participants make the Cenacle a priority and are thoughtfully present and prepared.

Who can join?

- Anyone! What's required is someone who wants to make a weekly commitment to grow in faith.
- In fact, if you connect each week on a Zoom call, you can be anywhere in the world!
 - Note: the big thing is that people make this a priority in their lives.
 - Once a week, they come together to pray, reflect, and support each other.
 - It's not complicated, but over time we find ourselves growing closer to God and each other.

Choose a Group Leader and connect with Fr. Andrew to begin

- The Leader keeps the group organized and communicates with Fr. Andrew.
- This person emails Fr. Andrew at fatherandrew97@gmail.com to let him know the group has formed.
