STEWARDSHIP OF TREASURE

Our Baptism, like the Lord's, is a consecration to service. The bishops' pastoral letter on stewardship reminds us that "...there is a fundamental obligation arising from the sacrament of baptism that people place their gifts, their resources – their selves -- at God's service in and through the Church."

HELP NEEDED TO TAKE DOWN CHRISTMAS DECORATIONS!

Sunday, January 11th, following 10:30 Mass.

WINTER SAFETY

Winter is here, and while we try to keep the sidewalks and steps free from snow/ice as best we can, Mother Nature doesn't always follow our schedule!

Please be careful when attending events by sticking to the main walkways. If the weather changes quickly, there are shovels and salt/grit bins at every entrance.

WEEKLY MEDITATION

Let's explore the themes we find in the Mass readings for the Baptism of the Lord.

1st Reading - Isaiah 42:1-4,6-7

- The chosen servant has received the spirit of God and will bring forth justice.
- The servant will establish a covenant with the people and bring light and healing to the nations.

Psalm - 29:1-4,9-10

- "The Lord will bless his people with peace."
- We give glory and praise to God, who is enthroned as king forever.

2nd Reading - Acts of the Apostles 10:34-38

- Peter speaks to the people in the house of Cornelius, saying that God shows no partiality.
- He then recounts the basic facts about Jesus, inviting the people to fear God and act uprightly.

Gospel - Matthew 3:13-17

- John the Baptist tries to prevent Jesus from being baptized by him, but the Lord directs him to allow it to fulfill all righteousness.
- As Jesus is baptized, the Holy Spirit descends upon him in the form of a dove, and the voice of the Father proclaims, "This is my beloved Son; with whom I am well pleased."

CHRISTMAS GIFTS

Through the generosity of many individuals and the Catholic Daughters, we were able to have families select Christmas presents for their children who had not been able to access gifts. 31 children were assisted with a total value of gifts estimated at $2500. We are especially grateful to the Cathedral blanket-makers. Parents were able to select 22 of the 39 tied fleece blankets we had in inventory. We will distribute remaining blankets to individuals and families throughout this year. Our dear Jewell Rankila established this ministry, and it continues under the oversight of Sandy Frazier and her volunteers. Thank you to all!

You are invited to our next meeting on Tuesday, January 13th at 6pm in Kress Hall at the Cathedral.

CATHOLIC SCHOOLS WEEK

Catholic Schools Week 2026:

Rooted in Faith, Focused on the Future!

Join us in celebrating Catholic Schools Week 2026, running from Sunday, January 25th, through Saturday, January 31st. This is a special time dedicated to honoring the outstanding education provided by the 14 Catholic Schools throughout our Diocese.

These schools highlight the unique qualities that make them exceptional: a rigorous academic foundation rooted deeply in faith, community, and service. We invite you to participate in the special events, open house, and activities planned throughout the week. Let's come together to celebrate our shared commitment to excellence in education and the formation of strong, faith-filled leaders for the future of our Church and communities.

As we observe this important week, we also ask you to support the Special Diocesan Collection for Catholic Schools. The collection provides an immediate and essential source of support for our schools, allocated based on student enrollment. Your generous response is a beautiful expression of discipleship and unity with Catholic school communities across northern Wisconsin. Your gift will help ensure a vibrant future for Catholic education and a strong Church.

The Catholic Daughters will meet on Monday, January 12 at the Golden Inn Restaurant at 11:00 am. Our speaker will be Paul Birch from the diocesan office. Lunch will be ordered from the menu.

Anyone interested in becoming a Catholic Daughter is welcome to attend our meetings.

Catholic United Financial Foundation announces that Mr. Jesse Larson and Mr. Jacob Nollet are 2025 recipients of a grant from the Monsignor Schuler Seminarian Fund. The Monsignor Schuler Fund exists to help seminarians with basic living expenses so they can concentrate on their studies and answer their call to the priesthood. As the Fund grows, so does our ability to help seminarians. To learn more about the Fund or the foundation, visit catholicunitedfinancial.org/foundation, email foundation@catholicunited.org or call 877-275-7145. Our seminarians are truly the future of the church who will become the next 'Fishers of Men'.

MEN'S RETREAT | JANUARY 24 - 25

The diocese will host the annual Men's Retreat at Trinity Woods Catholic Retreat Center in Trego January 24 - 25 The weekend retreat will begin Saturday with registration beginning at 8:00am and will wrap up on Sunday around noon following Mass. Lodging is available Friday night. Our theme this year is Men after Christ's Heart: The Call to Grow in Holiness and Virtue. Dr. Jonathan Reyes will help us to hear and respond to the Lord's invitation to become saints. His reflections will unpack specifics of what a life of holiness and virtue looks like as men in the 21st century. To register, call (715) 234-5044 to book/confirm your lodging. Then use the online link on the Men's Retreat page of the diocesan website.

WOMEN'S RETREAT | JANUARY 31 - FEBRUARY 1 OR FEBRUARY 7 - 8

The diocese will host the annual Women's Retreats at Trinity Woods Catholic Retreat Center in Trego January 31 - February 1 or February 7 - 8 The retreat will begin Saturday with registration beginning at 8:00am and will wrap up on Sunday around noon following Mass. Lodging is available Friday night. We will be lead on retreat by the Handmaids of the Heart of Jesus! This will be a reflective weekend focusing on authentic femininity and how the Lord reveals to us our deepest identity as women. It will provide many moments of silence, allowing you to enter into the heart God. To register, call (715) 234-5044 to book/confirm your lodging. Then use the online link on the Women's Retreat page of the diocesan website.

"The Catholic Church is working diligently to prevent sexual abuse by parish employees, volunteers, deacons, and priests. If you have been sexually abused by someone associated with the Church and would like to report or discuss the experience, we urge you to contact: Bonnie Thom (715) 718-1110.

The Diocese of Superior welcomes your call and understands how difficult it may be to reach out in this situation. The phone number provided is confidential and dedicated solely to these calls. Know that your call will be treated with respect, dignity, and compassion. The Diocese of Superior is bound by civil and canon law to report sexual abuse of a minor to civil authorities. Anyone who believes that they have been sexually abused is strongly encouraged to report as well."

Cenacle Prayer Group

Would you like to be part of a faith sharing small group? Are you looking for a weekly opportunity to pray and reflect on how God is working in your life, but in a way that respects your time and is both focused and positive? Our cluster is looking for people who want to grow together in faith through a Cenacle prayer group.

Cenacle – a faith sharing small group (it refers to the “Upper Room” where the disciples met.)

Cenacle Key Points

The group is ideally composed of 4-7 people.

Each week, a different person in the group leads the Cenacle.

The group meets weekly (with rare exceptions based on holidays and life situations).

The Cenacle lasts between 30-60 minutes; it never goes beyond an hour.

The group can meet in person or digitally

- If in person, do it at a regular time that suits everyone (after Mass, over coffee, at home, etc.)
- If online, use what works for your group (FaceTime, Google Meet, a Zoom call, etc.)

Cenacle Format – THIS IS WHAT YOU ACTUALLY DO

- Opening Prayer (1-2 minutes)
 - Led by whoever is leading the meeting that week; when in doubt, use the Our Father!
- Check in with each other (10-15 minutes)
 - Each person takes 2-4 minutes (never more than 5!) to share events from the past week
- Reflection (15-30 minutes)
 - Sunday Gospel Reading
 - The Gospel is read out loud
 - People share something (a word/phrase/image) that touched them from the reading
- Goals for the coming week (10-15 minutes)
 - Each person takes 2-3 minutes to share their goals and objectives for the coming week.
- Closing Prayer
 - Each person names any specific prayer intentions that they have.
 - The Leader offers a concluding prayer; if you're not sure what prayer to use, say the Hail Mary!

Hallmarks of a healthy Cenacle

- Positivity – the focus is always on personal growth when sharing struggles; “venting” is to be avoided.
- Vulnerability – requires participants to be real in their joys and burdens.
- Leadership – group is accountable: gossip, toxic behaviors, being present, not monopolizing time, etc.
- Investment – participants make the Cenacle a priority and are thoughtfully present and prepared.

Who can join?

- Anyone! What's required is someone who wants to make a weekly commitment to grow in faith.
- In fact, if you connect each week on a Zoom call, you can be anywhere in the world!
 - Note: the big thing is that people make this a priority in their lives.
 - Once a week, they come together to pray, reflect, and support each other.
 - It's not complicated, but over time we find ourselves growing closer to God and each other.

Choose a Group Leader and connect with Fr. Andrew to begin

- The Leader keeps the group organized and communicates with Fr. Andrew.
- This person emails Fr. Andrew at fatherandrew97@gmail.com to let him know the group has formed.

IMPACT

BRING FAITH TO LIFE. FIND LIFE IN FAITH.

This year, walk in the light of the Lord.

The shorter periods of daylight in the winter may leave us feeling as though we are surrounded by darkness. Sometimes, we leave home in the morning in the dark, and it is dark by the time we return home in the evening. We may feel more keenly the presence of spiritual or emotional darkness as well: fear, loneliness, doubt, grief, or worry may press upon our hearts, leaving us anxious and uncertain. The darkness is not only personal. We feel the darkness of political division, violence, and natural disasters so deeply that at times it feels as though light has been banished from our lives and world.

If there is anything we learn from Jesus, it is that God does not want us to live in darkness. God so desires that we know and live in the light that God came among us, to be one with us. This is what we celebrate in the Christmas season. No matter how unbearable the darkness may seem, we know that Christ's light prevails. "The people who walked in darkness have seen a great light; upon those who dwelt in the land of gloom, a light has shone." (Is 9:1)

Christ's light dispels our darkness and all darkness humanity has ever or will ever experience. Whatever the darkness we face, Christ's light awaits. Not only this, Christ awaits our loving action as the means for spreading his light, bringing hope and peace to those who most need it. We do this through our faithful stewardship of our lives, our actions, attention, prayer, help, support, caring and sharing.

How will you walk in the light of the Lord this year and share the light with others, dispelling their darkness by sharing God's great love in Jesus Christ?

Impact this month

Many people make New Year's resolutions — a promise to ourselves or those closest to us that we will do something tangible to be a better person, to be healthier, kinder, or to break a bad habit in the new year. This year, include a faith resolution in your plans.

As you look back on the year that has passed and ahead to the one that is just beginning, consider how you will walk in and share the light of Christ.

Is Jesus a driving force in your life? Do you regularly pray, listening through Sacred Scripture, devotional reading, and in the silence of your heart? Do you have others with whom you share your faith journey? How does your relationship with the Lord direct the way you live?

Prayerfully consider all that you might do to live and grow in faith. Write down your faith resolution and share it with someone you trust, asking him or her to hold you accountable. Keep your written resolution where you will be reminded of it, periodically take stock, and resolve more deeply to stay on the path of discipleship, trusting that Jesus is ready to walk with you.

How does faith help you find perspective and see your life more clearly?

Faith NOW

Do you have 20-20 vision? Not eyesight, but vision — is your manner of seeing yourself, others, and the world crystal clear? Do you yearn for something more, something greater in life? Do you sometimes find yourself with a glimpse of life as you wish it might be, only to find the vision slipping away?

The amazing, incredible, good news of Jesus is that God wants you to have the life you envision, and more. And not only you, but every person and all of creation. God created you in love, for love. God so desires that we know and live his love that God took on human flesh, removing all separation between us and God, so that we might have God's vision as our own.

Peter, Andrew, James, and John knew the human hunger which can only be filled in God. They had been hoping and praying that God would send the Messiah. They must have sensed something powerful and compelling in Jesus - when he called them, they put aside their nets and followed the Lord. Imagine the simultaneous uncertainty and freedom they must have felt as they dropped everything in order to walk with Jesus!

What stands between you and the life God envisions for you? Hear Jesus say to you, "Come after me." Take a risk and a step, toward the freedom of a joyful life with Jesus now and eternal life with God.

I, the Lord, have called you for the victory of justice, I have grasped you by the hand; I formed you, and set you as a covenant for the people, a light for the nations, to open the eyes of the blind, to bring out prisoners from confinement, and from the dungeon, those who live in darkness. (Is 42:6-7)

Throughout Advent and Christmas, we are invited to see the world through the eyes of God's great vision for humanity, when all will live in right relationship with God and one another. Through baptism we are drawn into Christ's life, so that in our day-to-day living, we may contribute to building this "peaceable kingdom," which may seem a distant dream, and yet has already been established through Christ.

Spiritual author Henri Nouwen reflected, "Instead of being an escapist dream, it challenges us to anticipate what it promises. Every time we forgive our neighbor, every time we make a child smile, every time we show compassion to a suffering person, every time we arrange a bouquet of flowers, offer care to tame or wild animals, prevent pollution, create beauty in our homes and gardens, and work for peace and justice among peoples and nations we are making the vision come true.

We must remind one another constantly of the vision. Whenever it comes alive in us we will find new energy to live it out, right where we are. Instead of making us escape real life, this beautiful vision gets us involved."

What small things are you ready to do to contribute to bringing God's vision to life?
