WEEKLY MEDITATION

Let's explore some of the themes in the Mass readings for the 2nd Sunday of the Year.

1st Reading – Isaiah 49:3,5-6

- The people are brought back and gathered together, made glorious by God's strength.
- They shall be a light to the nations, so that God's salvation may reach to the ends of the earth.

Psalms – 40:2,4,7-10

- "Here am I, Lord; I come to do your will."
- We wait for the Lord, who strengthens us to offer our lives in service.

2nd Reading – 1st Corinthians 1:1-3

- Paul introduces his letter stating that he is an apostle of Christ.
- He greets the people in the grace and peace of the Lord Jesus.

Gospel – John 1:29-34

- John the Baptist sees Jesus and says, "Behold, the Lamb of God, who takes away the sins of the world."
- John testifies that he has seen the Spirit come down

Fr. Andrew

Question for Children: If someone were to ask you, "who is Jesus?" how would you answer?

Question for Youth: How are you able to see through all the busyness, the distractions, and the din of today's world to really see Christ as he makes himself present today? Where do you see him or experience his presence?

Question for Adults: In the gospel today, John tells us who Jesus is for him. If someone were to ask you, how would you answer this question: Who Jesus is for you?

ST. VINCENT DE PAUL SOCIETY

VINCENTIAN REFLECTION OUR BAPTISMAL TASK

Our baptismal task is continually to deepen our own understanding of who Jesus is and to make him known. We don't come to a one-time understanding of Christ. Our whole lives are spent beholding the Lamb of God. Like John, we go from not knowing to seeing to testifying. More than likely, we aren't called to testify to the Son of God by going and baptizing or doing great things. We testify to Jesus' identity by being faithful to the ordinary things in life, by doing God's will. The revelation of Jesus' identity—how he is made known in the world—is mediated by the way we live

Join us as we live our faith through serving the poor in Christ. Our next meeting is on Tuesday, Jan 27th at 6pm in Kress Hall.

John testified further, saying, “I saw the Spirit come down like a dove from heaven and remain upon him. I did not know him, but the one who sent me to baptize with water told me, ‘On whomever you see the Spirit come down and remain, he is the one who will baptize with the Holy Spirit.’ Now I have seen and testified that he is the Son of God.” — Jn 1:32-34

CATHOLIC DIOCESE OF SUPERIOR OFFICE OF THE BISHOP

January 2026

Dear Friends in Christ,

As we launch into the new year, we look forward to celebrating Catholic Schools Week 2026, running from Sunday, January 25, to Saturday, January 31. This is not just another week on the calendar; it is a pivotal time to boldly proclaim the indispensable role our schools play in forging the future of our Northland Diocese.

Our Catholic schools are not institutions of maintenance; they are powerhouses of the Mission. They are where faith is not just taught, but ignited, shaping young souls into courageous leaders and dedicated Disciples. Throughout this powerful week, all 14 of our schools will open their doors for vibrant, engaging events, showcasing the extraordinary talents and achievements of our students. Come and witness firsthand the profound transformation happening in our classrooms and communities!

Look at the amazing profile of our graduates! They don't just succeed; they become the living legacy of our faith. The results are undeniable:

Ignited Faith: They are the next generation of seminarians and leaders, actively living out the Gospel and regularly attending Mass. We nurture this profound spirituality at every school by focusing on the sacraments, specifically through the Eucharist and adoration.

Exceptional Academics: They are equipped with the intellectual curiosity and critical skills to excel in any endeavor. They become the innovators, ethical leaders, and problem-solvers the world desperately needs.

Sent for Service: They possess a strong, active sense of civic responsibility, moving out from our campuses to build communities marked by justice and social good. They are apostles in action.

This week is also our chance to recognize the dedicated faculty and staff who pour their hearts, souls, and wisdom into nurturing the mind, body, and spirit of every child. Their tireless efforts are truly a treasure to our Diocese.

But the mission cannot continue without an investment from you. We believe with absolute conviction that a Catholic education must be accessible to all families who desire it, not just those who can afford it. To make this vision a reality, we urgently call upon every Catholic, including those in parishes without schools, to embrace their role as stewards of the greater Church. As part of Catholic Schools Week, we will hold a special diocesan-wide collection. This is your opportunity to make a tangible, powerful difference. The proceeds will provide additional support necessary to ensure our schools have further resources to deliver high-quality, faith-infused formation. Your generous contribution is not merely a donation; it is a direct investment in the vitality of our Diocese. It is the spark that ensures the flame of faith is passed to the next generation.

Thank you for your unwavering commitment. Let us celebrate Catholic Schools Week 2026 with passion, joy, and profound generosity, ensuring the enduring success and legacy of faith and knowledge for years to come!

Sincerely yours in the Lord,

Most Rev. James P. Powers
Bishop of Superior
