STEWARDSHIP OF TREASURE

When Jesus asked the Samaritan woman for a drink of water, He opened the door for a life-changing relationship with Him. Scripture says her testimony drew many others to Him as well. We, too, must be ready to respond whenever and wherever the Lord speaks to us and be prepared for it to change our lives!

FROM THE RECTOR'S DESK

LENTEN HOLY HOUR with Fr. Andrew Ricci

Join us on Thursdays during Lent for our Spiritual Bootcamp Series, designed to strengthen your faith through intentional planning, spiritual training, and faithful action. Each evening begins at 5:00 pm with Stations of the Cross, followed by the Lenten Bootcamp session. After Bootcamp, enjoy a soup supper sponsored by Knights of Columbus #16691, served downstairs in Kress Hall. Come grow, reflect, and journey together this Lent.

WINTER SAFETY

Winter is here, and while we try to keep the sidewalks and steps free from snow/ice as best we can, Mother Nature doesn't always follow our schedule!

Please be careful when attending events by sticking to the main walkways. If the weather changes quickly, there are shovels and salt/grit bins at every entrance.

WEEKLY MEDITATION

Here are some of the themes that we find in the Mass readings for the 3rd Sunday of Lent.

1st Reading - Exodus 17:3-7

- In their thirst for water, the people grumble against Moses.
- At the Lord's command, Moses takes his staff and strikes a rock, from which water flows and the people are able to drink.

Psalm - 95:1-2,6-9

- "If today you hear his voice, harden not your hearts."
- Unlike the Israelites who grumbled, we are exhorted to come before the Lord in joyful worship with thanksgiving.

2nd Reading - Romans 5:1-2,5-8

- Having been justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ.
- God proves his love for us in that while we were still sinners Christ died for us.

Gospel - John 4:5-42

- Jesus, sitting at a well in the town of Sychar in Samaria, encounters a woman and converses with her.
- Jesus announces that he is the Christ, and the woman tells others about Jesus...and they come to believe that he is the savior of the world.

Fr. Andrew

Question for Children: How do you experience Jesus helping and loving you?

Question for Youth: Jesus revealed himself to an outcast of society. How can you be "living water" to the outcasts of your school? Society? The world?

Question for Adults: When you are tempted to try to satisfy your "thirst for meaning" through some other means, what keeps you coming back to the living water of intimacy with Christ? Through what means do you experience Christ's power in your life: Sacraments? Scripture? Prayer? Others?

DIocese of Superior Office of the Bishop

March 2026

Dear Friends in Christ,

As we journey together through the sacred season of Lent, the Church invites us to prepare our hearts for the joy of Easter and the Resurrection of our Lord Jesus Christ. Lent is a time of prayer, sacrifice, and generosity, and it is inspiring to see how God continues to work through the faithful people of the Diocese of Superior.

On the Fourth Weekend of Lent, March 15, 2026, parishes throughout our Diocese will take up the World Concern Collection. Through your generous support and prayers, this collection brings hope and tangible assistance to people in great need around the world, including those suffering from the ongoing war in Ukraine. Your gifts also support special initiatives that ease suffering and promote peace and human dignity.

For many parishes, it will be an International Priests Collection. Parishes blessed to be served by one of our more than 25 International Priests should know that 100% of the funds collected in their parish will be sent directly to the priest's home diocese, helping to support the Church and its ministries where resources are often limited.

Parishes without an International Priest have the option to support several worldwide-based initiatives:

- The Collection to Aid the Catholic Church in Eastern Europe, recommended by the U.S. Bishops, provides vital humanitarian and pastoral assistance while helping rebuild churches, schools, and seminaries and support faith formation for the laity.
- The Catholic Relief Services Collection brings life-saving assistance to some of the poorest communities in the world. As a global leader in disaster response and humanitarian aid, Catholic Relief Services offers help, hope, and compassion when it is needed most.
- The Church in Latin America Collection supports pastoral and evangelization efforts in a region facing deep challenges from poverty, injustice, and social instability.
- The Solidarity Fund for the Church in Africa strengthens a rapidly growing Church by supporting Catholic schools, vocational training, education, and employment opportunities.
- The Collection for the Holy Father (Peter's Pence) allows Pope Leo to respond directly to urgent appeals for assistance around the world.

As we continue our Lenten journey, thank you for your faith, your prayers, and your generosity. Please be assured of my gratitude and my prayers for you and your families.

Gratefully yours in Christ,

Most Rev. James P. Powers
Bishop of Superior

IMPACT

MARCH 2026

Bring faith to life. Find life in faith.

Open your ears.

"This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased; listen to him."

Listen. We began the season of Lent in the desert with Jesus. There, Jesus faced temptation and showed us how to avoid sin by staying focused on God and God's ways. From the desert, we go to a high mountain, where we hear the voice of God urging us to listen to Jesus.

Pray. During Lent, we set aside time for prayer, time to listen to God and search our life in response to God's loving presence. Christ speaks to us in word and sacrament, through loving relationships, in joyful and challenging times. We must be ready to listen.

Reflect. What is your desert? What tempts you? From what do you need to turn away in order to listen to the Lord more attentively and make a greater place for Jesus in your life?

Open your eyes.

"Not as man sees does God see, because man sees the appearance but the LORD looks into the heart."

See. During Lent, we are invited to open our eyes, to pay attention to the grace of God in our midst and see the needs of others. In the gospel we hear on the Fourth Sunday of Lent, the man did not ask to be healed. Jesus saw his need and reached out to him. As a result, the man who was born blind could see, but those around him were blind to the truth of the Good News of Jesus Christ. They couldn't believe what was before their very eyes. We may see the face of God in the poor and vulnerable, the eyes of a child, the Body and Blood of the Lord in the Eucharist. We must be ready to open our eyes to perceive God's presence and to see others through the eyes of God, as precious and wonderful in his sight.

Fast. In Lent, we fast from a favorite food, beverage, screen time, or activity in order to experience more fully our hunger for God and to become more willing to live as God's holy people in the world.

Reflect. How often do you fail to see the goodness of God's love? In what ways might you more fully accept and share the mercy and forgiveness Christ freely gives?

Open your heart.

"If today you hear his voice, harden not your hearts."

Feel. Lent is a time in which to open our hearts to Christ, to risk trusting in God and allow Jesus to change us. The Samaritan woman did not at first understand what was happening to her as she spoke with the Lord at the well. Yet, she did not run away, and opened her heart to Christ. Not only was her heart moved and her life changed, so were the people of her town whom she told of her encounter with Jesus.

Give. During Lent, we give our time, money, and support to those who are poor, lonely, sick, in prison, the most vulnerable among us. We share our faith in Jesus and the impact of our faith in word and in deed, with friends, family, and especially with those to whom we reach out in charity this season.

Reflect. How might you open your heart to encounter Jesus this Lent? Who needs to know Christ's love and mercy through your giving and sharing? How might you go beyond yourself in care, compassion, and charity?

Impact
this month

1. Open your ears.

Spend time in prayer. Share the depths of your heart with God. Listen to the Lord in Sacred Scripture, the Eucharist, and in quiet reflection. Ask God to help you see your failings clearly. Seek forgiveness through the Sacrament of Reconciliation.

2. Open your eyes.

Fast from something that distracts you in order to see the goodness and beauty present in the people you love, in the sacraments, and in all of creation. Ponder your hunger for God and the mystery of Christ's love for you and for all.

3. Open your heart.

Make a promise to give to those in need in a special way this season. If at all possible, actively participate in service or ministry as well as giving money or material goods. Share the impact of your faith in Jesus through word and deed.

BE HONEST. TRUST IN THE LORD.

At first glance, it might not seem that the Samaritan woman at the well and Martha, the sister of Lazarus, have anything in common. The woman of Samaria had a difficult past that caused her to come to the well in the midday sun rather than enjoy the company of other women in the relative cool of the early morning hours. Martha and her siblings were often in the company of Jesus and were his friends.

The Samaritan woman initially responded to Jesus with disbelief. Jesus had broken all social norms in speaking with her. Jews did not associate with Samaritans and she was a woman, alone at the well. In the span of a few moments, however, her sparring became inquisitive; her honesty with Jesus turned incredulity into belief. "Come see a man who told me everything I have done. Could he possibly be the Christ?"

Martha was honest with Jesus, too. She expressed her frustration that the Lord had delayed coming to the aid of her brother Lazarus in his illness, prompting a dialogue in which she declared her belief that Jesus is the long-awaited Messiah.

"I have come to believe that you are the Christ, the Son of God, the one who is coming into the world."

Martha and the Samaritan woman trusted that they could be honest with Jesus. Reflecting on their experiences with Jesus, we may ask ourselves if we are ready for our own encounter with the Lord. Are we honest with Jesus in prayer? There is nothing too big or small that the Lord is not ready to hear. Do we believe that we can bring whatever is in our life to him? Let us be honest and trust Jesus when he says, "whoever drinks the water I shall give will never thirst; the water I shall give will become in him a spring of water welling up to eternal life."

He knows people's personal histories, their strengths and weaknesses, their destinies; he has a purpose in mind for each one. This purpose is individual vocation...Every human life, every personal vocation, is unique. Refracted through the prism of countless individual vocations, this way of life embodies and expresses the one mission of Christ: to do God's will, to proclaim the Good News of salvation, to heal the afflicted, to care for one's sisters and brothers, to give life – life to the full – as Jesus did. (SDR, 13–14)

Ready to be forever changed

Jesus took Peter, James, and John his brother, and led them up a high mountain by themselves.

Have you noticed that people in Sacred Scripture often meet God on a mountain? God recognized Abraham's faithfulness in his willingness to sacrifice his son, Isaac on a mountain. Moses encountered God in the burning bush on a mountain, and it was on a mountain that he received the Ten Commandments. Jesus took Peter, James, and John to a mountain, and there, they saw him transfigured, his glory shown in a powerful moment of God's presence. In all of these accounts, the mountain represents the place where earth and heaven meet, where people may encounter God's loving and powerful presence.

In his passion, death, and resurrection, Jesus "stretched out his arms between heaven and earth," removing all separation between God and humanity. We experience this most profoundly in the Eucharist, in which we are offered Christ's very Body and Blood, are shaped and transformed, strengthened to live as Christ's people in the world.

The apostles who saw Jesus transfigured on the mountain were never the same. They later recalled their experience, and in their telling, we sense their awe, the wonder they felt in this holy encounter.

As we hear their story, we might ask ourselves if we are ready to be forever changed by our encounter with God's love through Jesus Christ in the Eucharist. Are we filled with awe and wonder? Are we prepared to be transfigured, more profoundly shaped by Christ? Are we ready to accept the call of Christ's passion, death, resurrection, and life?

40 Cans for Lent 2026

Our Christ the King Council 16691 of the Knights of Columbus is again helping the St. Vincent de Paul food shelf with this year's 40 Cans for Lent. Can you help us? As much as you are able, please consider 40 cans (or boxes or packages) for Lent. Here is a list of items requested by our St. Vincent de Paul food shelf for the 2026 Cathedral collection. Their needs are very great this year.

Please do not purchase or donate items in glass jars, as they could break and cause a big mess. Plastic jars (such as plastic peanut butter jars) are fine. Please do not provide fresh foods (such as bread and fresh vegetables and fruits) and items requiring refrigeration, and please do not donate expired or opened items. PLEASE: The Food Shelf DOES NOT NEED plain canned beans (like lima beans, pinto beans, garbanzo beans, etc.). Thank you!

Donations can be brought to Cathedral between now and Holy Thursday. We anticipate that items will be on display on the steps to the stage in Kress Hall. THANK YOU FOR YOUR GENEROUS DONATION! VIVAT JESUS!

A dramatic, low-key painting of a person's back and hands. The person is shown from the back, with their head bowed. A hand is resting on their shoulder, suggesting comfort or support. The lighting is warm and focused, highlighting the textures of the clothing and the skin. The background is dark and textured, with a prominent red vertical element on the left side.

THE RETURN

LENT PRAY40

Journey through THE BROTHERS KARAMAZOV and the Parable of the Prodigal Son as we return to the Father this Lent. We're all farther from God than we need to be—but the good news is He is always waiting with open arms, running out to meet us while we are still a long way off.

To bring this Scripture to life like never before, we'll turn to Dostoevsky's famous novel. We'll step into the lives of its characters and discover the ways their struggles and brokenness mirror our own. Together, we'll let go of what holds us back, return home to the Lord, and let Him send us out as His hands and feet.

WHAT DO I OWE?

WEEK 02

DAY 8

THE BOW

Where might God be inviting you to practice real, active love—not in ideals, but by stepping into someone's burden with humility today?

DAY 9

STORY OF RETURN

What stood out to you from this testimony?

DAY 8

"I bowed yesterday to his great future suffering."

WHERE IS GOD?

WEEK
04

DAY 20

"It's not God that I do not accept ... it is this world of God's ... that I do not accept."

DAY 21

"God's answer is not an explanation. God's answer is love."

DAY 20

FAITH VS. REASON

Where are you most tempted to "return the ticket" to God—refusing His love because you can't reconcile it with suffering or with what feels fair?

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

DAY 21

LOVE IS A PERSON

When you're craving explanations, what would it look like today to bring your questions to Jesus and let His presence—rather than certainty—become your anchor?
