WEEKLY MEDITATION

Let's examine some of the major themes that surface in our readings for Palm Sunday of the Lord's Passion.

1st Reading – Isaiah 50:4-7

- This passage of the "Suffering Servant" is interpreted by the Church to apply directly to Jesus.
- Note how it is written in the first person, from the Lord's perspective, and points to the agony of the Passion.

Psalm – 22: 8-9,17-20,23-24

- "My God, my God, why have you abandoned me?"
- This Psalm offers a prophecy that is fulfilled with the Passion of the Lord.
- I strongly suggest that we all read Psalm 22 repeatedly during Holy Week. For although it begins in anguish and suffering, it ends with a resounding praise of the glory of God.

2nd Reading – Philippians 2:6-11

- Jesus humbly "empties himself" and takes on our human form in order to die on the Cross for our sins.
- Because of this sacrifice, Jesus Christ is exalted above all creation, and we acknowledge him as Lord.

Gospel – Matthew 26:14-27:66

- This is the great drama of God's love for us!
- Do yourself a favor and take time this week to slowly read and reflect on the Passion of our Lord. Seriously, just do it, and offer a prayer of gratitude for the sacrifice of Christ on the Cross.

Fr. Andrew

Question for Children: Share how you sometimes make sacrifices for the good of others.

Question for Youth: Today begins the holiest week of the year. It is a once-a-year opportunity to really reflect on Jesus' life, death, and resurrection. How will you enter into this experience? How will you be open to how you might be changed?

Question for Adults: Name one specific way that you live your baptismal call to enter into the death of the Lord by forgiveness, generosity, hospitality, or other ways.

_____ Will attend ($100 per person is enclosed)

_____ Cannot attend, please accept this contribution.

The recipient of the Lumen Christi Award this year is Patricia ‘Pat’ Wildenberg.

The award is presented to a member of our community who lives the values that our School strives to instill in our students. The award is called “Lumen Christi” which means “the Light of Christ,” and it refers to Christ as the source of truth, faith, knowledge, and character. Pat’s involvement at Cathedral School, her passion for youth ministry and her dedication to the Diocese of Superior are inspiring and make it easy to honor her.

Patricia Wildenberg was born in Appleton, Wisconsin to Bob and Jane Baumann. She grew up on a farm with six siblings in a family that valued faith, hard work, and Catholic education. Her parents believed deeply in the importance of a Catholic education and instilled that same conviction in their children. Pat was especially grateful for the sacrifices her parents made to send all seven of their children through 12 years of Catholic school. It was during her years at St. John Catholic High School in Little Chute that she met her husband, Bill Wildenberg.

Pat and Bill were married in 1973. In 1987, they moved to Superior when the paper mill opened in Duluth. Together they raised their four children in Superior, proudly sending each of them to Cathedral School. Pat quickly became an active volunteer, serving as CHASA president, coordinating the magazine sale, running the hot lunch program one day each week, and leading her daughter’s Girl Scout troop.

When her daughter Julie was in third grade, Pat was volunteering many hours each week when a friend encouraged her to apply for a position with the Diocese of Superior. She began what would become a 25-year career of dedicated service. Pat worked closely with Richard Lyons and Msgr. Philip Heslin, and later served as Administrative Assistant to three bishops: Bishop Fliss, Bishop Christensen, and Bishop Powers.

Pat holds especially fond memories of her involvement with Superior Area Youth Ministry. She helped organize and support Ski Blast, NET retreats, confirmation retreats, NCYC, TEC retreats, and the Diocesan Youth Rally. She also helped coordinate youth trips to World Youth Day in Denver, where participants saw Pope John Paul II, as well as a service trip for flood relief in Grand Forks and a Chicago mission trip through Young Neighbors in Action.

Pat continued her volunteer service at St. Anthony Catholic Church and later at Cathedral of Christ the King. She has generously shared her time as a confirmation teacher, religious education teacher, Development Committee member, lector, Eucharistic minister, tour guide, and by assisting with funeral luncheons.

Through her lifelong dedication to faith, family, and community, Pat has left a lasting impact on Catholic education and youth ministry in the Superior area.

If you have questions about the event, please call the school at 715-392-2976.
