WEEKLY MEDITATION

Let's examine some of the major themes that surface in our readings for Palm Sunday of the Lord's Passion.

1st Reading - Isaiah 50:4-7

This passage of the "Suffering Servant" is interpreted by the Church to apply directly to Jesus.

Note how it is written in the first person, from the Lord's perspective, and points to the agony of the Passion.

Psalm - 22: 8-9,17-20,23-24

"My God, my God, why have you abandoned me?"

This Psalm offers a prophecy that is fulfilled with the Passion of the Lord.

I strongly suggest that we all read Psalm 22 repeatedly during Holy Week. For although it begins in anguish and suffering, it ends with a resounding praise of the glory of God.

2nd Reading - Philippians 2:6-11

Jesus humbly "empties himself" and takes on our human form in order to die on the Cross for our sins.

Because of this sacrifice, Jesus Christ is exalted above all creation, and we acknowledge him as Lord.

Gospel - Matthew 26:14-27:66

This is the great drama of God's love for us! Do yourself a favor and take time this week to slowly read and reflect on the Passion of our Lord. Seriously, just do it, and offer a prayer of gratitude for the sacrifice of Christ on the Cross.

Fr. Andrew

Question for Children: How do your actions show that you put your faith and trust in Jesus?

Question for Youth: Lazarus received a second chance at life through Jesus. How have you experienced second chances in your own life?

Question for Adults: The death from which we are called is healing from those things which bind us and hold us back: memories, fears, rejection, or other such things. What binds you? What keeps you from fully being your own most true self in Christ?
