WEEKLY MEDITATION

Let's explore some of the themes we discover in the Mass readings for the 5th Sunday of Lent.

1st Reading-Ezekiel 37:12-14

The Lord calls the people to rise up from their graves and return to the land of Israel. God promises them the gift of his spirit that they will live.

Psalm - 130:1-8

"With the Lord there is mercy and fullness of redemption."
Out of the depths we cry to the Lord, trusting in the Lord's forgiveness and kindness.

2nd Reading-Romans 8:8-11

We cannot please God if we remain in the flesh, but if the Spirit of God dwells in us, we are raised to life.
If Christ is in us, then the spirit that raised Christ will also raise us up.

Gospel - John 11:1-45

Jesus returns to Bethany to raise Lazarus who has been in the tomb for four days.
Both sisters of Lazarus, Martha and Mary, reveal their faith in Jesus, and many more people come to believe as well.

Fr. Andrew

Question for Children: How do your actions show that you put your faith and trust in Jesus?

Question for Youth: Lazarus received a second chance at life through Jesus. How have you experienced second chances in your own life?

Question for Adults: The death from which we are called is healing from those things which bind us and hold us back: memories, fears, rejection, or other such things. What binds you? What keeps you from fully being your own most true self in Christ?

SOCIETY OF ST. VINCENT DE PAUL

GENUINE ALMSGIVING

Genuine almsgiving goes beyond material generosity. It is about recognizing the dignity of the poor and fostering relationships of solidarity. This means giving rooted in respect and equality, being present with those in need, and advocating for justice. True giving is reciprocal. The poor have much to teach us about faith, resilience, and community. In giving, we also receive.
Join us at our next meeting at the Cathedral at 6pm on Tuesday, March 24th.
