Encountering Christ, Transforming Lives

Fourth Sunday of Easter

“Whoever enters through the gate is the shepherd of the sheep. The gatekeeper opens it for him, and the sheep hear his voice, as the shepherd calls his own sheep by name and leads them out. When he has driven out all his own, he walks ahead of them, and the sheep follow him, because they recognize his voice.” - John 10 : 2 - 4

WEEKLY MEDITATION

Let's examine some of the main themes in the readings for the 4th Sunday of Easter.

1st Reading - Acts of the Apostles 2:14a, 36-41

Peter stands with the Eleven Apostles and preaches a message of repentance and baptism to receive the Holy Spirit. About 3000 people respond!

Psalm - 23:1-6

"The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want."
This well-known Psalm has inspired millions of Christians with a promise of God's grace and strength.

2nd Reading - 1st Peter 2:20b-25

Following the example of Jesus on the Cross, we receive the grace of God as we patiently endure suffering. Having gone astray like sheep, we find our restoration in Christ, whose shepherds and guards our souls.

Gospel - John 10:1-10

Jesus is both the shepherd who knows his sheep and the gate through which they pass into safety. The sheep recognize the shepherd's voice and they follow him so that they may have abundant life.

Fr. Andrew

Question for Children: How is Jesus your example when others don't like you?

Question for Youth: Sheep know their shepherd and follow his voice. How hard is it for you to recognize the voice of God in your own life? Whoa, help me hear God's voice?

Question for Adults: In what specific ways is Christian example that you follow when dealing with others, especially with those against whom you hold a grudge or those who dislike you?

APRIL IS AUTISM AWARENESS MONTH, a time to grow in understanding and compassion for individuals and families living with autism.

At Mass, you may notice children who become overwhelmed by noise, crowds, or changes in routine. This can sometimes look like restlessness, vocalizations, or a need to step out unexpectedly. Please know that these families are doing their best to participate fully in the life of the Church.

A few simple ways to show Christ's love:

- ~ Offer a smile instead of a stare
- ~ Be patient with unexpected sounds or movement
- ~ Give families space and grace if they need to step in and out

Your kindness and understanding help make our parish a place where everyone feels they belong. Thank you for reflecting God's love to all.

LOOKING FOR BUD VASES

My cousin works with special education students where she teaches in North Dakota. Throughout the year, she has different lessons and activities that lead up to the students arranging flowers in bud vases and delivering them to area nursing homes. This project is called "Operation Giving Circle".

Bud vases can be brought to church and placed in the marked container.

Thank you for your Support!
