WEEKLY MEDITATION

Let's explore some of the themes in the readings for the 6th Sunday of Easter.

1st Reading - Acts of the Apostles 8:5-8,14-17

- Philip continues the ministry of Jesus in Samaria, driving out evil and performing mighty acts of healing.
- The Apostles, hearing about Philip's ministry, send Peter and John to pray over the people that they might receive the Holy Spirit.

Psalm 66:1-7,16,20

- "Let all the earth cry out to God with joy."
- Nature itself gives praise and glory to the tremendous deeds that God has done.

2nd Reading - 1st Peter 3:15-18

- This passage readily applies to our modern world, inspiring us to "be ready to give an explanation to anyone who asks you for a reason for your hope."
- The practical, spiritual advice reminds us to be reverent and gentle, keeping our focus on Christ.

Gospel - John 14:15-21

- Out of love for the Lord, we keep the commandments of Christ.
- Jesus will ask the Father to send us the Advocate - the Spirit of truth - to remain with us.

Fr. Andrew

Question for Children: Jesus promises to be our friend forever. How do friends treat each other?

Question for Youth: Jesus promised us that the Holy Spirit (the Advocate) would remain with us always. When have you experienced the Spirit?

Question for Adults: Which one of the promises in today's Gospel gives you the most hope?

SOCIETY OF ST. VINCENT DE PAUL

Feast of St. Louise de Marillac - May 9th (1591-1660)

Along with St. Vincent de Paul, St. Louise de Marillac co-founded the Daughters of Charity (are you old enough to remember the "Flying Nun" television series?). They continue to dedicate themselves to service of the poor. St. Louise became a single mother and widow at the age 34 after the death of her husband. She has been proclaimed as the patron saint of all Christian social workers.

"Above all, be very gentle and courteous toward your poor. You know that they are our masters and that we much love them tenderly and respect them deeply. It is not enough for these maxims to be in our minds; we must bear witness to them by our gentle and charitable care." -St. Louise de Marillac

BABY BOTTLE CAMPAIGN

As was done the last two years, the Catholic Daughters in collaboration with the Superior Area Knights of Columbus are promoting a Baby Bottle Campaign with the proceeds being donated to the Lake Superior Life Care Center. Baby bottles will be distributed at all Masses on Mothers Day weekend and collected at the Masses on Fathers Day weekend. All Superior Cluster parishes and St. Francis Church are participating. Last year's campaign resulted in a total donation of $8,600 for the Lake Superior Life Care Center.

LOOKING FOR BUD VASES

My cousin works with special education students where she teaches in North Dakota. Throughout the year, she has different lessons and activities that lead up to the students arranging flowers in bud vases and delivering them to area nursing homes. This project is called "Operation Giving Circle".

Bud vases can be brought to church and placed in the marked container.

Thank you for your Support!

CALVARY CEMETERY

Flags, flower baskets and other decorations may be placed on graves five (5) days before Memorial Day and MUST be removed within fifteen (15) days thereafter. Flowers and other decorations placed in urns or containers built into flush monuments, foot markers or other ground level markers shall be placed and removed in accordance with this same schedule.

Flower baskets, urns and other decorations may be mounted on or attached to monuments. Attachments must be secured to the monument and provide a minimum clearance of 12 inches between the ground and the decoration. Artificial flowers must be secure in their containers.

Flowers and decorations placed for funeral services will be removed by the Sexton when the flowers fade.

The following installations at gravesites WILL NOT be allowed:

- Placement of fences, rocks, bricks or other permanent materials around monuments.
- Planting of flowers, trees or other vegetation around monuments or on graves.

Any such installation will be removed by the Sexton without liability.

Memorial trees may be planted at locations approved by the Sexton.

The Association shall not be responsible for theft, vandalism, or accident within the cemetery.

Please Note: Due to theft and vandalism in previous years, we ask that you mark your name (permanently) on flower baskets, urns and other decorations that you place temporarily on graves.

NOTE: There will be an 8:30am Mass on Memorial Day, Monday, May 25th at Calvary Cemetery weather permitting.

_____ Cannot attend, please accept this contribution.

The recipient of the Lumen Christi Award this year is Patricia ‘Pat’ Wildenberg.

The award is presented to a member of our community who lives the values that our School strives to instill in our students. The award is called “Lumen Christi” which means “the Light of Christ,” and it refers to Christ as the source of truth, faith, knowledge, and character. Pat’s involvement at Cathedral School, her passion for youth ministry and her dedication to the Diocese of Superior are inspiring and make it easy to honor her.

Patricia Wildenberg was born in Appleton, Wisconsin to Bob and Jane Baumann. She grew up on a farm with six siblings in a family that valued faith, hard work, and Catholic education. Her parents believed deeply in the importance of a Catholic education and instilled that same conviction in their children. Pat was especially grateful for the sacrifices her parents made to send all seven of their children through 12 years of Catholic school. It was during her years at St. John Catholic High School in Little Chute that she met her husband, Bill Wildenberg.

Pat and Bill were married in 1973. In 1987, they moved to Superior when the paper mill opened in Duluth. Together they raised their four children in Superior, proudly sending each of them to Cathedral School. Pat quickly became an active volunteer, serving as CHASA president, coordinating the magazine sale, running the hot lunch program one day each week, and leading her daughter’s Girl Scout troop.

When her daughter Julie was in third grade, Pat was volunteering many hours each week when a friend encouraged her to apply for a position with the Diocese of Superior. She began what would become a 25-year career of dedicated service. Pat worked closely with Richard Lyons and Msgr. Philip Heslin, and later served as Administrative Assistant to three bishops: Bishop Fliss, Bishop Christensen, and Bishop Powers.

Pat holds especially fond memories of her involvement with Superior Area Youth Ministry. She helped organize and support Ski Blast, NET retreats, confirmation retreats, NCYC, TEC retreats, and the Diocesan Youth Rally. She also helped coordinate youth trips to World Youth Day in Denver, where participants saw Pope John Paul II, as well as a service trip for flood relief in Grand Forks and a Chicago mission trip through Young Neighbors in Action.

Pat continued her volunteer service at St. Anthony Catholic Church and later at Cathedral of Christ the King. She has generously shared her time as a confirmation teacher, religious education teacher, Development Committee member, lector, Eucharistic minister, tour guide, and by assisting with funeral luncheons.

Through her lifelong dedication to faith, family, and community, Pat has left a lasting impact on Catholic education and youth ministry in the Superior area.

If you have questions about the event, please call the school at 715-392-2976.

Father Andrew's Summer Challenge!

Part II - What's the point?

Oh, have I received comments in the last week! And I have gotten "the look" from a number of people, ranging from sheepish grin to skin scorching stare!

Many people have started talking about my challenge, which is ultimately what I hope for from this annual event. The fact is, I want us to THINK about what we watch and when we watch it. Do we stop and choose to view a show, or are we so programmed that we automatically turn on the tube whenever we feel like it?

It is the unthinking, automatic, unfiltered approach that concerns me. Just because something is on doesn't mean that we have to view it. Consider the following:

- Do I turn on the TV for comfort or background noise?
- Do I watch TV because I can't think of anything else relaxing to do?
- Do I watch TV programming that I'm not interested in, only because I'm bored?
- Do I watch TV late into the night, losing sleep and gaining nothing in return?
- Does the content of my TV viewing conflict with my morality, integrity, and beliefs?
- Is TV keeping me from a relationship with: spouse, kids, family, friends, faith, or life?
- Am I constantly checking social media?
- Do I text spontaneously? Can I live without my phone for longer than one hour?
- Do I surf the web mindlessly? Do I find myself online even when it is not necessary?
- Am I using the web as a tool or an escape? Have I lost the ability to entertain myself?

Now, if you are looking for an excellent source for information about television and movies there is hope!

“We unite our hearts to Jesus Christ through study, prayer, and service.”

Next week I will offer some ideas for life apart from television. Now, for those who missed last week, here's the challenge:

1. Cold Turkey. That's right! Dump the screens and fill your life with 1001 activities that are good for your mind and your body. Unplug the set(s), stop the video games, and shut down the internet wherever possible. Take back your life and CHOOSE for yourself what kind and type of entertainment and recreation is good for you. And if you need "screen time," rent a movie (or check one out at the library), but only when YOU CHOOSE what and when you watch. If you can't handle this.....

2. Cut the time. The average American now watches 38+ hours of television a week (that's 5 hours and 31 minutes a day). Decide for yourselves what you choose to watch and set a goal for each person in the house to watch no more than 10 hours a week (about 1 ½ hours a day). If this is still too much for your electronic addiction then.....

3. Have a household discussion. Sit down and discuss what you are watching and come up with a plan. How much TV is too much? What kind of programming is being viewed? How much "surfing" on the web is really useful? What are some alternatives to the mind-numbing effects of the tube? Set limits for yourself.

Talk about the challenge and decide if you would be willing to follow through for 3 months. Some people think that I am crazy to even suggest this, but do we really want our lives completely wrapped around a screen? Do we really want to open our minds and hearts to programming, images, and ideas that are contrary to the Gospel?

This can be an incredible opportunity for all of us to rediscover the beauty and power of summer. In the coming weeks I will suggest different activities and ideas.

Another thought for concern: TV & Violence

In a position paper citing research statistics, the American Academy of Family Physicians sites the following:

- The average American youth will witness 200,000 violent acts on television before the age of 18
- Cartoons are now available on demand and frequently have between 20-25 violent acts an hour, about five times the average prime-time program
- 46% of all violence on TV now comes from cartoons
- 91% of all movies on TV contain violence

Cenacle Prayer Group

Would you like to be part of a faith sharing small group? Are you looking for a weekly opportunity to pray and reflect on how God is working in your life, but in a way that respects your time and is both focused and positive? Our cluster is looking for people who want to grow together in faith through a Cenacle prayer group.

Cenacle – a faith sharing small group (it refers to the “Upper Room” where the disciples met.)

Cenacle Key Points

The group is ideally composed of 4-7 people.

Each week, a different person in the group leads the Cenacle.

The group meets weekly (with rare exceptions based on holidays and life situations).

The Cenacle lasts between 30-60 minutes; it never goes beyond an hour.

The group can meet in person or digitally

- If in person, do it at a regular time that suits everyone (after Mass, over coffee, at home, etc.)
- If online, use what works for your group (FaceTime, Google Meet, a Zoom call, etc.)

Cenacle Format – THIS IS WHAT YOU ACTUALLY DO

- Opening Prayer (1-2 minutes)
 - Led by whoever is leading the meeting that week; when in doubt, use the Our Father!
- Check in with each other (10-15 minutes)
 - Each person takes 2-4 minutes (never more than 5!) to share events from the past week
- Reflection (15-30 minutes)
 - Sunday Gospel Reading
 - The Gospel is read out loud
 - People share something (a word/phrase/image) that touched them from the reading
- Goals for the coming week (10-15 minutes)
 - Each person takes 2-3 minutes to share their goals and objectives for the coming week.
- Closing Prayer
 - Each person names any specific prayer intentions that they have.
 - The Leader offers a concluding prayer; if you're not sure what prayer to use, say the Hail Mary!

Hallmarks of a healthy Cenacle

- Positivity – the focus is always on personal growth when sharing struggles; “venting” is to be avoided.
- Vulnerability – requires participants to be real in their joys and burdens.
- Leadership – group is accountable: gossip, toxic behaviors, being present, not monopolizing time, etc.
- Investment – participants make the Cenacle a priority and are thoughtfully present and prepared.

Who can join?

- Anyone! What's required is someone who wants to make a weekly commitment to grow in faith.
- In fact, if you connect each week on a Zoom call, you can be anywhere in the world!
 - Note: the big thing is that people make this a priority in their lives.
 - Once a week, they come together to pray, reflect, and support each other.
 - It's not complicated, but over time we find ourselves growing closer to God and each other.

Choose a Group Leader and connect with Fr. Andrew to begin

- The Leader keeps the group organized and communicates with Fr. Andrew.
- This person emails Fr. Andrew at fatherandrew97@gmail.com to let him know the group has formed.
