WEEKLY MEDITATION

Here are some of the themes in the Mass readings for the Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity.

1st Reading - Exodus 34:4b-6,8-9

- Moses, holding the stone tablets, encounters the Lord on Mount Sinai.
- Moses asks the Lord to accompany the stiff-necked people of Israel and pardon their wickedness and sins.

Psalm - Deuteronomy 3:52-55

- "Glory and praise for ever!"
- Blessed be the Lord who is holy, glorious, praiseworthy, and exalted above all forever.

2nd Reading – 2nd Corinthians 13:11-13

- Paul exhorts the people to mend their ways as they encourage one another to live in peace.
- Paul then extends the grace of Jesus, the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit to be with them.

Gospel - John 3:16-18

- One of the most beloved lines in the entire Bible: "God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him might not perish but might have eternal life."
- God sends his Son, not to condemn the world, but that the world might be saved through him.

Fr. Andrew

Question for Children: When people love each other, how do they treat each other?

Question for Youth: The Trinity is celebrated today. How would you describe your relationship with God the Father? With Jesus? With the Spirit?

Question for Adults: If you were to encourage the members of your own parish to live as a "community of love," which is how we define the Trinity, how would you advise them to live? Use St. Paul's list of exhortations as your starting point.
