Pentecost Sunday

Jesus said to them again, "Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so I send you." And when he had said this, he breathed on them and said to them,

"Receive the Holy Spirit.

Whose sins you forgive are forgiven them, and whose sins you retain are retained."

-Jn 20: 20 - 23

WEEKLY MEDITATION

Let's explore some of the main themes for the Mass
During the Day of Pentecost.

1st Reading - Acts of the Apostles 2:1-11

Gathered together, the disciples are filled with the Holy Spirit and begin to speak in different languages.

People from many different languages hear them speaking in their native tongue of the mighty acts of God.

Psalm - 104:1,24,29-30,31,34

"Lord, send out your Spirit, and renew the face of the earth."

God's Spirit creates and renews the earth with life and glory.

2nd Reading - 1st Corinthians 12:3b-7,12-13

There are different gifts, forms, and workings of the Holy Spirit given uniquely to each person.

As a body is one through many parts, all the parts of the body are one.

In Christ we are united in the Spirit into one body, whether Jew or Greek, slave or free person.

Gospel - John 20:19-23

Although the doors are locked, Jesus appears to the disciples and says, "Peace be with you."

The Lord breathes on them saying, "Receive the Holy Spirit."

Question for Children: When have you heard your inner voice or conscience guiding you to do what is right?

Question for Youth: On Pentecost, the apostles were able to speak in a language that everyone could understand. As a young person, you have your own way of communicating Jesus' importance in your life. How will you make Jesus more known to others in your own way this week?

Question for Adults: Share about times when you felt the power of the Spirit, giving you the right words, giving you insight into a dilemma, or in other ways.

My cousin works with special education students where she teaches in North Dakota. Throughout the year, she has different lessons and activities that lead up to the students arranging flowers in bud vases and delivering them to area nursing homes. This project is called "Operation Giving Circle".

Bud vases can be brought to church and placed in the marked container.
