Mass Intentions

We are in need of mass intentions to fill our Saturdays into the Spring & Summer months. Encountering Christ, Transforming Lives

Thank you to all who helped with "spring cleaning" at the church grounds and the cemetery. A winter's worth of leaves, sticks, branches, and dead trees were cleaned up. Both places look great!

A special thank you to Scott Hockenbrock for making a new sign that shows the way to the St. William cemetery. Check it out; it's at the corner of the Polish Road and County Rd B.

WEEKLY MEDITATION

Here are some of the themes in the Mass readings for the Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity.

1st Reading - Exodus 34:4b-6,8-9

- Moses, holding the stone tablets, encounters the Lord on Mount Sinai.
- Moses asks the Lord to accompany the stiff-necked people of Israel and pardon their wickedness and sins.

Psalm - Deuteronomy 3:52-55

- "Glory and praise forever!"
- Blessed be the Lord who is holy, glorious, praise worthy, and exalted above all forever.

2nd Reading - 2nd Corinthians 13:11-13

- Paul exhorts the people to mend their ways as they encourage one another to live in peace.
- Paul then extends the grace of Jesus, the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit to be with them.

Gospel - John 3:16-18

- One of the most beloved lines in the entire Bible: "God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him might not perish but might have eternal life."
- God sends his Son, not to condemn the world, but that the world might be saved through him.

Fr. Andrew

Question for Children: When people love each other, how do they treat each other?

Question for Youth: The Trinity is celebrated today. How would you describe your relationship with God the Father? With Jesus? With the Spirit?

Question for Adults: If you were to encourage the members of your own parish to live as a "community of love," which is how we define the Trinity, how would you advise them to live? Use St. Paul's list of exhortations as your starting point.
