WEEKLY MEDITATION

Here are some of the key themes in the Mass readings for the 11th Sunday of the Year.

1st Reading – Exodus 19:2-6a

- The people of Israel are encamped in the desert of Sinai before the mountain of God.
- Speaking to Moses, the Lord reminds the people of their redemption from Egypt and to keep God's covenant as his special possession.

Psalms – 100:1-3,5

- "We are his people: the sheep of his flock."
- The Lord's goodness endures forever, and we come before God with joyful song.

2nd Reading – Romans 5:6-11

- God proves his love for us, for while we were still sinners Christ died for us.
- Through the death of Jesus, we are now reconciled to God.

Gospel – Matthew 9:36-10:8

- Seeing the crowds, Jesus takes pity on the people, who are like sheep without a shepherd.
- Christ appoints the Twelve by name, giving them authority to drive out unclean spirits and cure every disease and illness.
- The Lord then sends out the Twelve to make the proclamation, "The kingdom of heaven is at hand."

Fr. Andrew

Question for Children: This week, how can you welcome someone at school or in your neighborhood who is feeling left out?

Question for Youth: Jesus was able to see the faith of the woman, even though she was a sinner. Who is in need of your forgiveness, even though they have done you harm? What is one way that you can offer forgiveness to someone in the weeks to come?

Question for Adults: How can you show compassion toward the marginalized members of society today?

DIOCESE OF SUPERIOR

OFFICE OF THE BISHOP

June 2026

My Dear Friends in Christ,

As summer begins and we gather in faith and fellowship, I invite you to prayerfully support the National Concern Collection, which will be held in our parishes on the weekend of June 20–21, 2026. Through this annual collection, we unite with Catholics across our nation in supporting ministries that bring hope, compassion, education, and the Gospel message to countless people in need. Your generosity supports five important initiatives that strengthen the Church both locally and nationally.

The Retirement Fund for Religious helps religious communities caring for their elderly and infirm members. For generations, religious sisters, brothers, and priests have faithfully served our parishes, schools, hospitals, and communities. Today, many religious communities face rising healthcare and retirement costs despite limited financial resources. This fund helps ensure that these devoted servants of God receive the care and dignity they deserve.

The Catholic Campaign for Human Development addresses the root causes of poverty by supporting community-based initiatives that help individuals and families achieve greater stability and self-sufficiency. Through grants and local efforts, this campaign has provided meaningful assistance to communities within our own diocese.

The Catholic Communication Campaign shares the message of Christ through television, radio, print, digital media, podcasts, livestreaming, and social media outreach. In an increasingly digital world, this ministry allows the Church to reach people wherever they are and to provide spiritual encouragement and formation each day. Importantly, half of the funds collected remain within our diocese to support local communication and evangelization efforts.

The Archdiocese for the Military Services ministers to Catholics serving in the United States Armed Forces, veterans, and their families. Military personnel often serve far from home and parish communities, yet they continue to seek the comfort and strength of the sacraments and pastoral care. Your support helps provide chaplains and spiritual resources to those who faithfully serve our country.

Finally, The Catholic University of America in Washington, D.C., continues its mission of providing outstanding higher education grounded in the Catholic intellectual tradition. By supporting the University, we help form future leaders who will serve the Church and society with wisdom, faith, and integrity.

I invite you to prayerfully consider making a generous gift to this year's National Concern Collection. Contributions may be made through your parish collection envelope or online through your parish website. Thank you for your continued generosity, your faithful witness, and your prayers.

Gratefully yours in Christ

Most Rev. James P. Powers
Bishop of Superior

Cenacle Prayer Group

Would you like to be part of a faith sharing small group? Are you looking for a weekly opportunity to pray and reflect on how God is working in your life, but in a way that respects your time and is both focused and positive? Our cluster is looking for people who want to grow together in faith through a Cenacle prayer group.

Cenacle – a faith sharing small group (it refers to the “Upper Room” where the disciples met.)

Cenacle Key Points

The group is ideally composed of 4-7 people.

Each week, a different person in the group leads the Cenacle.

The group meets weekly (with rare exceptions based on holidays and life situations).

The Cenacle lasts between 30-60 minutes; it never goes beyond an hour.

The group can meet in person or digitally

- If in person, do it at a regular time that suits everyone (after Mass, over coffee, at home, etc.)
- If online, use what works for your group (FaceTime, Google Meet, a Zoom call, etc.)

Cenacle Format – THIS IS WHAT YOU ACTUALLY DO

- Opening Prayer (1-2 minutes)
  - Led by whoever is leading the meeting that week; when in doubt, use the Our Father!
- Check in with each other (10-15 minutes)
  - Each person takes 2-4 minutes (never more than 5!) to share events from the past week
- Reflection (15-30 minutes)
  - Sunday Gospel Reading
    - The Gospel is read out loud
    - People share something (a word/phrase/image) that touched them from the reading
- Goals for the coming week (10-15 minutes)
  - Each person takes 2-3 minutes to share their goals and objectives for the coming week.
- Closing Prayer
  - Each person names any specific prayer intentions that they have.
  - The Leader offers a concluding prayer; if you're not sure what prayer to use, say the Hail Mary!

Hallmarks of a healthy Cenacle

- Positivity – the focus is always on personal growth when sharing struggles; “venting” is to be avoided.
- Vulnerability – requires participants to be real in their joys and burdens.
- Leadership – group is accountable: gossip, toxic behaviors, being present, not monopolizing time, etc.
- Investment – participants make the Cenacle a priority and are thoughtfully present and prepared.

Who can join?

- Anyone! What's required is someone who wants to make a weekly commitment to grow in faith.
- In fact, if you connect each week on a Zoom call, you can be anywhere in the world!
  - Note: the big thing is that people make this a priority in their lives.
  - Once a week, they come together to pray, reflect, and support each other.
  - It's not complicated, but over time we find ourselves growing closer to God and each other.

Choose a Group Leader and connect with Fr. Andrew to begin

- The Leader keeps the group organized and communicates with Fr. Andrew.
- This person emails Fr. Andrew at fatherandrew97@gmail.com to let him know the group has formed.
