WEEKLY MEDITATION

Here are some of the key themes in the Mass readings for the 11th Sunday of the Year.

1st Reading - Exodus 19:2-6a

The people of Israel are encamped in the desert of Sinai before the mountain of God.

Speaking to Moses, the Lord reminds the people of their redemption from Egypt and to keep God's covenant as his special possession.

Psalm - 100:1-3,5

"We are his people: the sheep of his flock."

The Lord's goodness endures forever, and we come before God with joyful song.

2nd Reading - Romans 5:6-11

God proves his love for us, for while we were still sinners Christ died for us.

Through the death of Jesus we are now reconciled to God.

Gospel - Matthew 9:36-10:8

Seeing the crowds, Jesus takes pity on the people, who are like sheep without a shepherd. Christ appoints the Twelve by name, giving them authority to drive out unclean spirits and cure every disease and illness.

The Lord then sends out the Twelve to make the proclamation, "The kingdom of heaven is at hand."

Fr. Andrew

Question for Children: This week, how can you welcome someone at school or in your neighborhood who is feeling left out?

Question for Youth: Jesus was able to see the faith of the woman, even though she was a sinner. Who is in need of your forgiveness, even though they have done you harm? What is one way that you can offer forgiveness to someone in the weeks to come?

Question for Adults: How can you show compassion toward the marginalized members of society today?
