WEEKLY MEDITATION

Here are some of the main themes in the Mass readings for the 12th Sunday of the Year.

1st Reading-Jeremiah20:10-13

Jeremiah hears the whisperings of those who seek his downfall.

The prophet puts his hope in the Lord.

Psalm 69:8-10,14,17,33-35

"Lord,in your great love, answer me." The Psalmist prays for God's help in times of suffering.

2nd Reading - Romans5:12-15

Through the sin of Adam, sin and death entered the world.

Through the death of Jesus on the cross, the grace of God overflows us all.

Gospel - Matthew 10:26-33

Christ tells the Twelve to "fear no one" and "do not be afraid."

God, who knows the hair on our heads, invites us to follow the Lord Jesus with fervent faith.

Those who acknowledge Jesus before others will be acknowledged by him before God the Father.

Fr. Andrew

Question for Children: Jesus tells us not to be afraid. Name a time when you were afraid and Jesus helped you.

Question for Youth: Jesus tells us that he will remember us to his Father if we proclaim him to others. How easy is it for you to talk about your faith with your friends? How about your family or people you don't know very well?

Question for Adults: What is your responsibility to Jesus? How and when will you carry out that responsibility?

SOCIETY OF ST. VINCENT DE PAUL

DEVOTION TO THE SACRED HEART OF JESUS

So great was the Society of St. Vincent de Paul's devotion to the Sacred Heart that in 1871, Alexandre Legentil, President of the Council of Paris, wrote what became known as the "National Vow" which helped spur construction of the Basilica of Sacré-Cœur de Montmartre (Basilica of the Sacred Heart) on the highest hill in Paris. On February 5, 1872, the Society consecrated itself to the Sacred Heart, St. Marguerite-Marie's visions offer to us the twelve promises of the Sacred Heart of Jesus. Our hearts united to His, and also to the neighbor, may we share the hope of those same promises. As St. Louise teaches, "To help you practice the love you owe your neighbor, remember when you are together that the bond of union among you is the Blood shed by the Sacred Heart of Jesus Christ."
